For any administrators or managers who act on behalf of the company it is necessary to obtain a Temporary Resident Visa or a permit to do lucrative activities; any acts performed by these parties won't be considered valid, unless they a visa or permit.	Companies who hire foreigners need to obtain a permit with INM (National Immigration Institute) in order to hire foreigners. They must submit all necessary paperwork; when the permit is obtained, foreign employees can enter the country and finish any paperwork left at the INM.
Regulated activities by the Foreign Investment Law	Some business activities in Mexico are restricted for foreign entities or Mexican entities with foreign investment.	Some of these activities are: Public National Transportation, Gas Stations, Radio Stations, and some other services.

Employment

Topic	Feature	Remarks
Work permit	All Foreign Employees need a Temporary Resident Visa with a working permit.	Normally the expiration time of any Visa is one year; renewable for as many times as needed.
Labor law	In Mexico there are detailed employment regulations. A minimum of 6 days of paid holidays a year are guaranteed. The maximum working hours allowed by the Federal Labor Law are 8 hours per day, six days per week. There are new regulations related to homework, including how should be the journal for employee and other issues for employer. The law was modified to inhibit outsourcing companies, allowing only specialized jobs to provide this service and only if the companies that hire that services, not provide them.
Social system	The social security system consists of health insurance, pension insurance, and the possibility to obtain a cheaper credit to acquire a house. The social security contributions and credit for a house are discounted partly from the employee's salary.	The Mexican Government has two institutions to accomplish the purposes of the social security system. IMSS and INFONAVIT.

Taxation

In Mexico the most relevant taxes are imposed by federal government. Nevertheless, Income Tax Law (ITL) recently, allowed states to levy an additional 5% percent income tax on gains on sale of real property, however, such IT is creditable against the federal tax so there is not an additional tax burden. Transfer Pricing regulations are strong and many BEPS recommendations have been introduced.

Tax	Feature	Remarks
Corporate Income Tax (Legal Entities)	The standard corporate income tax rate is 30% on all taxable earnings of the corporation, whether retained or distributed profits. However, profit distributions are only taxed once at the corporate level. Individuals shall not accrue income from profits distributions.	In order to achieve the one level tax on corporate profits "Net After Tax Profit Account" (CUFIN) shall be determined. Profits distributions out of CUFIN shall pay 42.86% at corporate level only. As from 2014 dividends paid to Foreigners and Mexican Individuals will be subject to a 10% withholding tax
Personal Income Tax	It rises progressively to a maximum personal income tax rate of 35%, which is applicable to earnings above of EUR 140,000 or more (round numbers).	Personal deductions apply, However total amount per year is limited to the lesser of; 5 annual legal minimum wages or 15% of total income. This limitation shall not apply to donations and interests paid on mortgage.

Personal Income Tax in case of partnerships	By general rule partnerships are within scope of legal entities so they are separate legal entities. However, ITL provides for some “transparent regulations” and yields and advance payments received by members of civil law partnerships are considered as a deduction on a corporate level and shall pay tax on individual level according with the progressive rate.
Other Main Tax Topics	Permanent Establishment. It is levied as a local corporation but it is useful for allocation cost contracts. Mandatory Employees’ Profit Sharing. 10% of the annual pre-tax profits. Thin Capitalization Rule. Amount of debt shall not exceed three times the equity capital.	Tax Incentives: Real Estate Developers may deduct land cost investment in the acquisition year
Value Added Tax (VAT)	Apply on a) Transfer of goods, b) Rendering of independent services c) Temporary use or enjoyment of goods d) Importation of goods or services. 16% General rate 8% Near Border (20 km) 0% Some transactions (basic products) and Export of goods and some services	Refunds are available when 0% transactions are mainly made. 2019 Tax reform repeals compensation against federal taxes. Some new option may be enacted to avoid financial harm. Runs on a cash flow basis and “effectively collected” rules must be considered.
State and Municipal Taxes	Rely mainly on payroll (imposed by states) and property. Average rate 2% percent. Real property acquisition tax (for the benefit of municipalities) is imposed on entities and individuals acquiring real property. Rates vary among the different legislations with 2% as a predominant rate.
Non-resident Taxation	Non-resident individuals and companies receiving income sourced in Mexico are subject to Mexican taxation. Double taxation of this income is avoided by double tax agreements between Mexico and other countries. Mexico has the biggest network of Tax Treaties among all the countries in Latin America. In case of a non-resident company tax treatment depends on its kind of income. Payments to related parties are deductible but 2020 tax reform included new compliance rules. Transfer Pricing dispositions are in force following OECD Guidelines. Currently, a general withholding rate of 25% is provided by law to be applied over total revenue; however, there are some options to tax 25% rate over net basis (income less specific deductions): tourism time sharing contracts, sale of real estate and sale of shares. Exercising the option is subject to complying with some requirements. Special regulations applied for “tax haven transactions” when non-residents earn income from Mexico with low or any tax in its residency country (22% or less). 40% withholding tax may apply.
